

The absence of closures of given properties

Petr Vrána

Overview of type results: A closure preserving a given Hamiltonian property from a given class of graphs to a given class of graphs is not possible. References to known closures are also added.